A photograph of the exterior of the Bridgeport Church of Christ. The building is constructed of red brick and features a prominent white steeple with a cross on top. A large, multi-paned window is visible on the side of the building. In the foreground, there is a sign on a wooden post that reads "Bridgeport Church of Christ" and "COME JOIN US TO WORSHIP GOD". The sign also lists the minister, Ryan Curry, and the date, June 23. The church is surrounded by greenery, including bushes and flowers, and a paved walkway leads to the entrance.

bird watching, and American capitalism. Similar stories accompany St. Patrick’s Day, Easter, Halloween, and even Christmas, but to a sentimental person it is simply a beloved holiday.

In contrast, the message of Jesus is vastly different. From the fall of man it was prophesied that a unique man would be born to conquer Satan. (Gen 3:15) Over the next four millennia more than three hundred prophecies described this Messiah. Could you image anticipating President’s Day or Martin Luther King, Jr. Day for thousands of years before celebrating those holidays?

In about thirty years Jesus fulfilled all of those three hundred plus prophecies. After the ascension of Christ, the apostles delivered the “traditions” (1 Cor 11:2; 2 Thes 2:15) of Christianity and within a span of 30-50 years, inspired men recorded those laws in the New Testament. Even holidays like Independence Day, Memorial Day, and Thanksgiving took much longer just to establish as national holidays.

Additionally, Christianity is not a once a year holiday, but rather a lifestyle that will reach into eternity. No man-made celebration can match the perfection of the Gospel. So on this Valentine’s Day, remember what a wonderful God we serve, who is love and has done all to show us what love truly is.
