Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.
Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends.

Eight Gifts That Do Not Cost a Cent

The Gift of Listening. But you must really listen. No interrupting, no daydreaming, no planning your response. Just listening.

The Gift of Affection. Be generous with appropriate hugs, kisses, pats on the back, and handholds. Let these small actions demonstrate the love you have for family and friends.

The Gift of Laughter. Clip cartoons. Share articles and funny stories. Your gift will say, "I love to laugh with you."

The Gift of Written Notes. It can be a simple "Thanks for the help" note or a full sonnet. A brief, handwritten note may be remembered for a lifetime, and may even change a life.

The Gift of a Compliment. A simple and sincere, "you look great in red," "you did a super job" or "that was a wonderful meal" can make someone's day.

The Gift of Favor. Every day, go out of your way to do something kind.

The Gift of a Cheerful Disposition. The easiest way to feel good is to extend a kind word to someone. Really, it's not that hard to say, "Hello" or "Thank you."

Read Luke 6:38!

Echoes of Love

The other day a boy refused to obey his mother. Angrily he ran to a ravine and cried, "I hate you!" Suddenly the words came echoing back, "I hate you!" Frightened, the boy ran to his mother and said, "There's a bad man in the woods. I heard him say, "I hate you."

Knowing what had happened she said, "Go back and say, "I love you." The little boy called out, "I love you." And the same words came back to him. "Son," she said, "this is a law of life, what you give, you get. What you say, you hear."

The Bible says "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap" (Galatians 6:7).
